

2010 YOUTH RETREAT

APRIL 2-3 CLINTON, ONTARIO

Planning is underway for this years AHAEC Youth Retreat. The youth retreat is open to any youth wishing to attend. As in the past there is the opportunity to either bring a horse or learn from the ground. This years clinician will be Dale Brown of Rentz, Georgia. Dale and his students have garnered over fifty prestigious National honors in the Open, Amateur and Youth divisions at the U.S., Canadian, and Youth Nationals... as well as countless Regional & Class A Championships.

In 2006, he was nominated by the Arabian Professional and Amateur Horseman's Association for the Rising Star Award, and in 2007 & 2008 the extremely celebrated Male Western Pleasure Trainer of the Year Award. Dale Brown Performance Horses, Inc operates with a strong emphasis on the Western & Hunter Pleasure Divisions, but has also developed it's program to successfully train horses and instruct riders & handlers in Reining, Sidesaddle, English Pleasure, Horsemanship, Equitation, Halter and Showmanship. Check out Dale Brown Performance Horses on the web www.dalebrowninc.com

2010 YOUTH RETREAT

APRIL 2-3 CLINTON, ONTARIO

This years Youth Retreat will take place at the www.reachhuron.ca. REACH is a new facility that has developed partnerships with several organizations including University of Guelph in order to provide educational opportunities. It can easily accommodate us for the hands-on studies that have been apart of the Youth Retreat in the past and in addition, those attending will also have the opportunity to tour the teaching Laboratory facilities for reproduction and other courses offered at REACH. REACH has provided us with stabling for 12 horses, a 211' x 108' indoor riding arena, dorm area for our attendees, as well as kitchen amenities and classroom space. As in the past each attendee will be asked to bring a potluck item.

Price for those bringing a horse - $135

Price for attending without a horse - $105

Any questions can be forwarded to

Janet Wojcik - janetwojcik@hotmail.com or Tara Porter - tipsynbar@hotmail.com

