

NEW FOR 2011

Dressage

- Equine Canada has released new tests for Training Level through 4th Level; there have also been changes made to the technical requirements for 3rd and 4th Level Freestyle
- All 2011 tests must be ridden in 20x60 m arenas, with the exception of Walk/Trot tests A and B and Training Level tests 1, 2, and 3, which may be ridden in either a 20x40 or 20x60 arena
- Please visit equinecanada.ca/dressage to print new tests or request a dressage handbook

One-Day Competitions

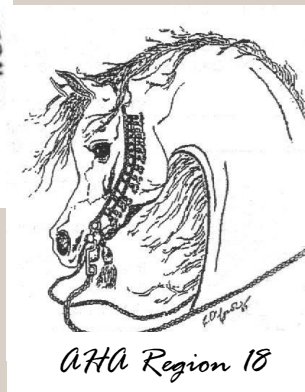

- AHA-sanctioned one-day competitions no longer fall under Equine Canada jurisdiction
- Exhibitors are no longer required to pay EC drug fees at these shows, EC memberships are not required, and an EC steward need not be present
- HOWEVER, these shows still fall under AHA rules; please refer to the 2011 AHA handbook for more details

AHA Sweepstakes Program

- Please see 2011 list of AHA classes offering Sweepstakes money, or visit arabianhorses.org for more details
- 2011 payout per point: $10.00

Additions to Equine Canada's Prohibited Drug List

- Please visit equinecanada.ca > sport > medication for a full list of prohibited substances

WORKING TOGETHER

COMPETITION REQUIREMENTS

All Riders, Drivers, Handlers, Trainers, Coaches, and Owners must provide proof of:

AHA one-day shows

- OEF membership
- AHA competition membership

AHA local and regional shows

- OEF membership (not required by USEF members)
- EC Bronze or USEF membership
- AHA competition card

Notes:

- Exhibitors showing solely in non-rated classes only require a valid OEF membership
- Walk/Trot exhibitors exempt from AHA membership requirements with the exception of Regional competitions

- Leadline exhibitors exempt from AHA membership requirements
- Proof of EC or USEF amateur status must be provided in order to compete in amateur classes
- Parents or guardians signing on behalf of minors do not require any memberships
- If joint ownership (“and” appears on registration) all owners must provide current memberships; if alternate ownership (“or” appears on registration), only one owner needs to carry current memberships
- AHA Member cards DO NOT permit an individual to own, train, or show at AHA-sanctioned competitions
- AHA Single Event Memberships may be purchased at $35, but are not permissible at Regional Shows

Horses

- All Arabian and Half-Arabian horses must be registered with AHA, CAHR, CPAR, AA, or IAHA in order to compete in AHA classes
- If the horse has recently been purchased, a purchase contract and copy of the signed reverse of the registration must be provided to the show secretary
- Proof of negative Coggins test dated within six months of competition required for ALL shows
